Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Black Slaves of Prussia: An Open Letter Addressed to General Smuts Dear General Smuts, You will not be surprised, I think, to hear that we who live in German East Africa are becoming anxious about the fate of the colony. The British Government and its Allies have spoken with decision: they have pledged their honour that they will fight till liberty is established throughout the world: until no one weak people is oppressed by a stronger race. And the President of the United States has given the authority of his great country to this solemn pledge. But there are signs that some in England and on the Continent are ready to end the war before this liberty is established. A desire for a quiet life and, I suppose, a lust for money seem to outweigh in some minds the value of liberty: and tempt men to dishonour the sacrifice of blood and sweat that others have offered in its cause. We are, therefore, becoming really anxious both for our Africans future and for the honour of our country. We are afraid that Africa will be enslaved to Germany. We are afraid lest a small peace party cause our rulers to break their imperial pledge to establish liberty or die. It seems right, therefore, that some one who knows German East Africa should publish the true facts. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
