The tree makes a strong, uniform growth, bears early, and, if planted in quantity to sell as a cooking pear, it will pay handsomely. The Glout Morceau, so strongly recommended and so extensively planted a few years ago, is a worthless variety in New Jersey. It is the most promising and least productive variety with which I am familiar. We have more trees of the Duchesse d Angouleme in our orchard, than of any other variety; next in number is the Bartlett. The others are in about equal proportion. If confined to plant but two varieties for profit, I would choose these two named. For four varieties, I would add Beurre d Anjou and Vicar of...
