Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This is a fictional story which follows on from Becoming A Model Patient. It covers a week spent at a Scottish Castle with sixty students and work colleagues. Reader's feedback: I've got to let you know that my bag is packed, my passport is up to date, and I need to know what airport to fly into in order to get to the castle! (I know it's fiction) but damn, it sounds like a WONDERFUL place to hang out for a week or two. and it would be interesting to find out if I could walk out of there under my own power afterwards!!! Great story. Again, many thanks for writing a great story, and even more thanks for sharing Both Summer Camp and Becoming a Model Patient have been HOT, HOT, HOT!!!! So glad to read an extended story of FF pleasures! Thank you ever so much for your work! I've loved every line of your stories! Thanks for letting me know about your new story. I loved it, buddy! At first, I didn't really get into the romantic prologue between Marc and the narrator. But once they got to the castle I had a blast reading it! All the hilarious twists and turns had me laughing out loud. Having to strip a piece of clothing off every time they lost the quiz was pure joy!! The hiking suntan lotion incident brought back some recent memories. I think I identified with Callum (and maybe Toby). Poor Callum had to test the machinery and showers naked in front of Douglas. Great stuff! Just when I thought the story was starting to wear out, you brought...
