This, the song of my blood and the singing - Of pains, I now offer to please. What I bring in the seed is the bringing Of fruits that will ripen and ease Bitter thoughts, by a perfume close clinging, By these rhyme-storms, like turbulent seas. I sing of strange songs and the wringing Of hands in fatidical zeal, - Of great gloom-throated bells, ever ringing With wild poems of bronze till they reel. I sing of all terrors hell-springing, And I sing of our woe and our weal. Like a bee on a tulip-leaf swinging, I extract all the juice and the meat, All the dross and the dew, nothing flinging - Aside, whether good or effete. For are bees to be shunned for their stinging, If their honey is luscious and sweet? About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
