The mists and lurking banks of fog seemed not to be hanging, as usual in England, over the hills and fields; but it was as fine a day as you will often find in the month of June. Now, children, I cannot vouch for the truth of this story of the forest Elves, but you will have to take it just as it came to me. Max had not quite finished thinking what a jolly time he would have with Mickey at the bird-trap, and wondering if he should have the good fortune to catch a chattering finch, like his sister s, when he heard beside him almost the smallest, oddest voice he had ever listened to in his life before....
