Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . GAO discussed Department of Defense (DOD) financial management. GAO noted that: (1) during the first half of fiscal year (FY) 1993, DOD received $751 million in payments returned by contractors, an indication that DOD controls over disbursements are poor; (2) it identified numerous instances of overpayments resulting from fraud perpetrated by DOD military and civilian personnel, former DOD personnel, and contractors; (3) DOD has identified approximately $19 billion in disbursements that it cannot match with related obligations, and GAO is monitoring DOD progress in resolving problems with unmatched disbursements; (4) by the end of FY 1993, DOD had overexpended five M accounts by $152.7 million; (5) while DOD has made some progress in implementing the Defense Business Operations Fund, problems GAO had previously identified continue, and DOD needs to assess whether to appoint a full-time Director responsible for overseeing the Fund's daily operations; (6) while DOD is implementing the Corporate Information Management Initiative (CIM), the Defense Finance and Accounting Service does not have a comprehensive strategic information systems plan to coordinate implementation of streamlined systems under CIM;...
